

Egyptian Museum

The Egyptian Museum is a history museum located in Cairo, Egypt. It houses one of the world's largest collections of ancient Egyptian artifacts, including statues, mummies, jewelry, papyrus manuscripts, and treasures from the tomb of Tutankhamun. It is a popular destination for tourists, historians, and researchers interested in ancient Egyptian civilization. The museum is wheelchair accessible and is typically open from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM.

---

Museum of Islamic Art

The Museum of Islamic Art is one of the most important museums dedicated to Islamic heritage. Its collections include ceramics, textiles, metalwork, manuscripts, wood carvings, and glassware from different periods of Islamic history. The museum attracts visitors interested in Islamic culture, architecture, and decorative arts. It is wheelchair accessible and generally operates between 9:00 AM and 5:00 PM.

---

Coptic Museum

The Coptic Museum preserves the cultural and artistic heritage of Egypt's Coptic Christian community. Its exhibits feature manuscripts, icons, textiles, sculptures, and everyday objects that illustrate the development of Coptic art and history. It is located in Old Cairo and serves as an important educational and cultural institution. The museum is wheelchair accessible.

---

Abdeen Palace Museum

The Abdeen Palace Museum is located inside the historic Abdeen Palace, one of Egypt's former royal residences. The museum contains collections of royal artifacts, weapons, medals, historical documents, gifts presented to Egyptian rulers, and decorative furnishings. It provides visitors with insight into Egypt's modern royal history and political heritage.

---

National Museum of Egyptian Civilization

The National Museum of Egyptian Civilization presents Egypt's history from prehistoric times to the modern era. Its collections include royal mummies, archaeological discoveries, clothing, tools, coins, and cultural artifacts representing different historical periods. The museum aims to showcase the continuity of Egyptian civilization through thousands of years.

---

Railway Museum

The Railway Museum documents the history of rail transportation in Egypt, one of the earliest railway systems in Africa and the Middle East. Visitors can explore historic locomotives, railway equipment, engineering models, tickets, maps, and photographs illustrating the evolution of Egyptian railways.

---

Umm Kulthum Museum

The Umm Kulthum Museum celebrates the life and career of the legendary Egyptian singer Umm Kulthum. The museum displays her personal belongings, handwritten notes, photographs, awards, concert recordings, and historical documents. It is a popular destination for visitors interested in Egyptian music and cultural history.

---

Gayer-Anderson Museum

The Gayer-Anderson Museum occupies two beautifully preserved historic houses dating back to the Ottoman period. Its collections include Islamic art, furniture, ceramics, carpets, manuscripts, and antiques collected by Major Gayer-Anderson. The museum is known for its unique architecture and historical atmosphere.

---

Museum of Modern Egyptian Art

The Museum of Modern Egyptian Art showcases paintings, sculptures, drawings, and mixed-media works created by leading Egyptian artists from the twentieth century to the present. Its collections demonstrate the development of modern and contemporary Egyptian artistic movements and provide insight into the country's evolving cultural identity.

---

Child Museum

The Child Museum is an interactive educational museum designed to introduce children to science, history, nature, and environmental awareness through hands-on exhibits. The museum encourages learning through exploration, games, multimedia displays, and educational workshops, making it suitable for families and school groups.

